Talking about imaginary situations

• We use Second Conditional sentences to talk about unreal or imaginary situations that are not likely to happen in the present or the future.

if -clause	main clause
if + the Past Simple	would/could + base form
If you were more careful	you wouldn't make so many mistakes.

If I were a superhero, I would protect all the people in the world from the wicked.

• We can use were instead of was in the if clause of second conditional sentences.

If I had superpowers, I would use them to help people.

If I could fly, I wouldn't be late for my appointments.

You would lose some weight if you ate less bread.

If I had some free time, I'd travel abroad with my family.
