KONU MODERN HEROES AND HEROINES - PART B

Expressing wishes

We use the Past Simple after the verb wish when we want to make a wish about a present or future situation (when we want the situation to be different).

I wish I were taller.

I wish we lived in a big city.

I wish I were a superhero.

I wish I could fly.

I wish I could speak German.

I wish I didn't have to get up so early.

I wish I had a lot of money.

We can use were instead of was in these sentences as well.

Vocabulary:

1. detect: to discover something, usually using special equipment

This device is used to detect the level of lead in the air.

2. milestone: an important event

The competition was a real milestone in his life. It changed all his future plans.

3. award: a prize which is for an achievement:

The producer of the movie got some awards like an Oscar in 2016.

4. give up: to stop trying to do something

Mary gave up skiing after her fall last December.

5. chase: to try to obtain or achieve something

Why do you feel hopeless? Chase your dreams. Keep trying. You'll succeed.

Idioms:

○ Real heroes never give up. They say, "No pain, no gain."

We use the idiom no pain, no gain when we mean you can succeed if you bear difficulties and overcome them.
